The James Craig Anderson Foundation for Racial Tolerance

The mission of the foundation is to promote racial tolerance, unity and understanding particularly in the Jackson, Mississippi metropolitan area, the state of Mississippi and in the United States. Funds raised by the foundation will be used to sponsor seminars, social events, community meetings and other events to encourage a dialogue to promote racial unity, understanding and tolerance.

The family of James Craig Anderson is determined not to let the death of “Craig” be in vain. They pray that out of this tragic event, some good may come out of it. In lieu of giving money to the family, the family requests anyone wanting to honor the memory of James “Craig” Anderson, please contribute to the James Craig Anderson Foundation for Racial Tolerance.
